PRESIDENT'S HEALTH IMPROVING.

Washington, Jan. 14.-The posts sion of the house and senute which has been investigating postal matters for the last two years, made a report to-day. The committee reports in favor of excluding from the second classr mail list, first, books whethe bound or unbound; second, newspapers, and periodicals unsold sent by news agent or returned to publishers; third, sample copies of newspapers above a certain small fixed proportion of circuition. The committee also unanimously reports against the continuance of the system of transmitting mails in pneu-matic tubes under present conditions. The committee unanimously reports neither change in letter postage nor establishing a system of parcels pos practicable under existing conditions of revenue and expenditure, even if opinion is expressed.

Upon the question of railway ma pay there are five reports. Benators Wol cott and Allison agree that the present rate of railway mail pay is excessive and ought not to be changed except by dircontinuance of appropriations for special facilities, which it declares should be discontinued. Other members disagree with this view.

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION RESOLUTIONS

The funeral of Rev. J. N. McClure, former paster of the Highland Metho-dist Episcopal church, south, occurred yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and the little church on the Highlands was crowded with mourners and friends. In fact, many who could not gain admision to the church, filled up the street on the outside in front of the church. Presiding Elder Mark Hodgson conducted services, assisted by Revs Clayton, Foulks and Huggett, of the same denomination, and Revs. J. W. Marsh. T. C. Benttis Brook Victor same denomination, and Revs. J. W. Marsh, T. C. Beattie, Bruce Kinney and others of other churches. Hev. Hodgson spoke of the past life of the deceased minister from early years at home till he came to Las ruces, where he preached a year, and to remain in Albuquerque through the en for the sixteen months in Alb uerque, dwelling upon the sterling valities that endeared the dead to all ose who made his acquaintance. Rev. Kinney of the Baptist church, spoke of the good work done here by the deceased, and dwelt upon his noble traits of character and force with men.

The scripture was read by several of the ministers present; Rev. J. W. Marsh, of the Congregational lead in prayer, and the choir sang several selections. selections.

Rev. T. C. Beattle, of the Presby-ter church, read the following resoluorder, by his constant, tireless devotion to his work, and above all by his Christ like spirit so manifest to all, he won our respect and love. He was a Christian man among men, always about his Father's business. Like his master 'he went about doing good.' The personal work accomplished will ever be felt.

In his life everything else was sub-ordinated to saving soils. 'This one ordinated to saving soils.' This one thing I do'' could be truly said. His central alm was to lead men to his Saviour. We pastors have lost not chily a friend and fellow helper, but the whole community one devoted to its highest interests. It is our prayer that the earnest words spoken face to face will linger in all hearts till many shall be brought to the Divine Master, and thus our young brother being dead will yet speak. His short ministry was so filled with

His short ministry was so filled with earnest endeavor for the Lord that we cannot speak of his life as cut off. While walking with God, and his fellow men comforting the unfortu-nate, beseeching all to take Christ as their saviour, he was not, for God had taken him. He did not die but was translated to a higher sphere. Words taken him. He did not die but was translated to a higher sphere. Words cannot speak our loss, but all is gain to him for he has gone to be with Christ, which is far better.

The secretary is requested to spread the resolutions upon our minutes, and to forward a copy to the family of the deceased.
